Tony Kuczinski, President of Munich Reinsurance America, announced that Specialty Markets Division President Craig Smiddy will resign his position.

Craig Smiddy worked for Munich Re for 15 years, the last 5 of which he served as President of Specialty Markets. "After achieving these personal milestones with Munich Re, I came to the difficult decision that my future career aspirations will best be realized by spending the next 15 years of my career working in another capacity," said Smiddy.

No successor has yet been named, however Smiddy will work with Munich Re America management over the coming months to transition his responsibilities.

"I have worked with Craig for many years and he has always been a hard working, focused and effective leader. I consider him not only a colleague, but a friend and I wish him well in whatever future endeavor he undertakes," said Kuczinski.

In the U.S., Munich Re provides access to a full range of property and casualty reinsurance and specialty insurance products through Munich Reinsurance America, Inc., American Modern Insurance Group and Hartford Steam Boiler Group. Munich Re stands for exceptional solution-based expertise, consistent risk management, financial stability and client proximity. This is how Munich Re creates value for clients, shareholders and staff. In the financial year 2012, the Group – which combines primary insurance and reinsurance under one roof – achieved a profit of €3.2bn on premium income of around €52bn. It operates in all lines of insurance, with around 45,000 employees throughout the world. With premium income of around €28bn from reinsurance alone, it is one of the world's leading reinsurers. Especially when clients require solutions for complex risks, Munich Re is a much sought-after risk carrier. Its primary insurance operations are concentrated mainly in the ERGO Insurance Group, one of the major insurance groups in Germany and Europe. ERGO is represented in over 30 countries worldwide and offers a comprehensive range of insurances, provision products and services. In 2012, ERGO posted premium income of €19bn. In international healthcare business, Munich Re pools its insurance and reinsurance operations, as well as related services, under the Munich Health brand. Munich Re's global investments amounting to €214bn are managed by MEAG, which also makes its competence available to private and institutional investors outside the Group.
