Cookies

While you are on-line, your computer saves so-called cookies. These are small files that control how our website is displayed and operates. Cookies do not damage your computer and do not contain viruses. Cookies serve to make our internet presence more user-friendly, effective and secure.

Most of the cookies we use are “session cookies” which are automatically deleted as soon as you leave the site. Other cookies remain on your computer until you delete them. Such cookies allow us to recognise your browser the next time you visit and the browser settings let previously viewed pages load faster, for example. We use cookies to offer you the best possible experience on our website.

We therefore save them and analyse their data – although they do not identify you personally. This improves the usefulness of our website. We perform anonymous statistical analyses of our internet presence, and do not identify you personally.

You can change your browser settings so that you are notified when cookies are being used, and you can allow them only once, or refuse them in certain cases or completely. You may also activate the automatic deletion of cookies when you close your browser. Deactivating cookies may restrict website functionality.

Information Security

Your privacy is important to us and we follow strict security and organisational procedures in the processing, storage and destruction of your information. This is to prevent unauthorised access or loss of your information.

Transfer of Data

We will not transfer your personal data outside the UK or EEA where there is not an adequate level of data protection.

Your personal data may be disclosed to companies within our Group or to Service Providers outside the UK or EEA. We ensure that there is an adequate level of data protection in place and adhered to by these parties.

Data Retention

Your personal data will only be kept for as long as it is necessary for the purpose it was collected for.

We retain the data in relation to your policy for seven years after conclusion of the contract you hold with our Digital Partners.
Employers Liability data will be kept for 40 years.

Changes to this Privacy Notice

We reserve the right to amend or modify this Privacy Notice (which will be published on our website) at any time and in response to changes in applicable law.
