Use of Your Consent to Special Categories of Personal Data (Sensitive Personal Data)

Your gender (identity), sexual orientation and neuro diversity data is entirely optional and you are under no obligation to disclose this information. If you choose to do so, then we will require your consent to process this data.

You may withdraw your consent for us to process this data at any time by contacting the Data Protection Expert (details as above).

Protection of your information

Your privacy is important to us and we follow strict security and organisational procedures in the processing, storage, destruction and disclosure of your information. This is to prevent unauthorised access or loss of your information.

Data Retention

If your application for employment is unsuccessful, we will hold your data on file for 6 months after the end of the relevant recruitment process. At the end of that period, your data is deleted or destroyed.

If your application for employment is successful, personal data gathered during the recruitment process will be transferred to your personnel file and retained during your employment. The periods for which your data will be held will be provided to you in a separate employee privacy notice.

Transfer of Data

We will not transfer your personal data to any countries that do not provide an adequate level of data protection.

However, your personal data may be disclosed to companies within our Group, even if they are located outside the UK or EEA. In all these cases, we ensure that there is a full adequate level of data protection in place and adhered to by these parties.

You can find out the details about any other companies we have shared your personal data with by contacting the Data Protection Expert at the address provided at the top of this privacy notice.

What if you do not provide personal data?

You are under no statutory or contractual obligation to provide personal data to us during the recruitment process. However, if you do not provide the information required, we may not be able to process your application properly or at all.
