Young graduates in economics, engineering, mathematics or law (m/f/d)*

Location
Milan, Italy

As one of the world's leading reinsurance companies, Munich Re is dedicated to training all employees to reach the highest levels of insurance and reinsurance knowledge, to transforming that knowledge into expertise, and to bringing that expertise to our clients. The young graduates cross-dept. induction program is one way of accomplishing this critical goal. This experience-based program offers 18-months comprehensive training in Facultative&Corporate, Claims, Client Management, New Business Models and Accounting areas (rotations can last between 2 to 5 months). Trainees will spend the majority of their time gaining hands-on experience about core business functions from internal experts and enjoy working in a hybrid environment. The ideal candidate would have the following profile:

Your Profile

- Bachelor's or master's degree in the following areas: economics, engineering, mathematics or law
- Possess a "growth mindset"
- Desire to contribute to an international and flexible environment
- A team player, proactive and eager to learn
- Strong communication skills and fluent in Italian and English
- Solution-oriented
- Strong analytics capabilities
- Tech savvy
- Innately curious and self-motivated
