10 How you can access your Personal Information held by us

Subject to any legal restrictions or exemptions, you may request access to the Personal Information we hold about you by contacting our Privacy Officer as follows:

In person: L28, 60 Martin Place, Sydney.

In writing: The Privacy Officer,
Munich Re Australia
PO Box H35
Australia Square
NSW 1215 Australia

By phone: +61 (2) 9272 8000

By email: privacyofficer@munichre.com

We will respond to requests for access within a reasonable timeframe.

We will give access in the manner you request, where it is reasonable and practicable to do so. Where we cannot give access in the manner requested, we may provide access in another way, including access through a mutually agreed intermediary where appropriate. There may be some cost to you to cover the cost of retrieving and processing the information. We may also require you to formally prove that you are the individual to whom we hold the Personal Information.

We may, however, refuse a request to access Personal Information if, in our view, we are legally permitted to do so. If we refuse access to Personal Information, or do not provide it in the manner requested, we will provide you with written notice setting out the reasons for the refusal except to the extent that it would be unreasonable in the circumstances to do so, within a reasonable time. We will also tell you how to complain about our refusal to give access.

11 How you can seek correction of your Personal Information held by us

We take reasonable steps to ensure that the Personal Information we collect from or about you is accurate, complete and up to date.

You have a right to request correction of Personal Information that we hold about you. If you believe that the Personal Information we hold about you is not correct, please let us know by contacting our Privacy Officer. The contact details are set out above. We will respond to your request within a reasonable period after your request is made.

If we agree that the information is not correct, we will take such steps (if any) that are reasonable in the circumstances, having regard to the purpose for which Personal Information is held, to correct the Personal Information.

If we do not correct the Personal Information we hold about you after your request, we will tell you why, except to the extent that it would be unreasonable in the circumstances to do so. We will also tell you how to complain about our refusal to correct your information.

If we do not correct the requested Personal Information that you ask us to correct, you may ask us to take steps which are reasonable in the circumstances to associate a statement in our records that you consider the information is not correct in such a way that will make the statement apparent to users of that Personal Information. We will respond to this request within a reasonable period after your request is made.

We will not charge for making a request to correct Personal Information held, for correcting the information or for associating a statement with the information.
