Nikolaus von Bomhard recommended as Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Munich Re

- Nikolaus von Bomhard and Karl-Heinz Streibich have been recommended by the Nomination Committee for election to the Supervisory Board.
- If elected, Nikolaus von Bomhard is to take over the role as Chairman of the Supervisory Board.
- Bernd Pischetsrieder and Henning Kagermann are leaving the Supervisory Board at the end of the Annual General Meeting 2019.

The Nomination Committee recommended to today's meeting of the full Supervisory Board that Nikolaus von Bomhard (62) be nominated for election to the Supervisory Board at the Annual General Meeting 2019.

If elected by the Annual General Meeting, Nikolaus von Bomhard is also to be recommended to succeed Bernd Pischetsrieder as Chairman of the Supervisory Board. Nikolaus von Bomhard was a member of the Board of Management of Munich Re from January 2000 to April 2017, and took over as its Chairman in January 2004. As a universally acknowledged expert and industry professional, he has the comprehensive knowledge of the business that is so important for the work of the Supervisory Board. Since April 2018, von Bomhard has been the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Deutsche Post DHL Group.

The Nomination Committee also recommended to the full Supervisory Board that Karl-Heinz Streibich (65) be nominated for appointment to the Supervisory Board. From October 2003 to August 2018, Streibich was Chairman of the Management Board of Software AG and is the President of acatech, the German Academy of Science and Engineering. He is a renowned expert on digitalisation.

Bernd Pischetsrieder and Henning Kagermann, who are not standing for re-election, will leave the Supervisory Board of Munich Re at the end of the Annual General Meeting 2019.

The resolution of the full Supervisory Board regarding the recommended nominations to the Annual General Meeting 2019 will probably be taken at the Supervisory Board meeting in March 2019.
