

Munich Re Specialty Insurance Names Mary Beth McClellan Chief Claims Officer

Munich Re Specialty Insurance (MRSI) today announced the appointment of Mary Beth McClellan as Chief Claims Officer. McClellan will report to Mike Kerner, Chief Executive Officer, Munich Re Specialty Insurance.

McClellan joined MRSI in 2020 as Head of Claims. She previously served as a Casualty Practice Lead over multiple lines of business for a global commercial insurance company. McClellan draws on her background as a trial attorney to guide Munich Re Specialty Insurance's claims team in providing claims strategy and litigation management expertise, proactive service and exceptional support to clients and partners.

"Mary Beth has played a central role in the development of our in-house claims operations over the past year, which marks another key milestone in our journey to establish the carriers that are part of MRSI as the leading commercial specialty carriers in North America," said Kerner.

As Chief Claims Officer, McClellan oversees a team of claims professionals that includes attorneys with decades of experience, who have specialized expertise in property, casualty, professional liability and specialty lines.

"In addition to providing the exceptional responsiveness and industry-leading claims handling that our brokers and partners have come to expect from Munich Re Specialty Insurance, Mary Beth and her team are deeply embedded in our clients' business and understand their priorities and concerns," said Kerner. "Our experts provide valuable industry and claims insight to anticipate and avoid possible claims issues and achieve optimal claims resolution."
