

Munich Re Announces Two New Appointments for Head of Global Business Communications and Head of Global Brand & Operations

Munich Re announced today the appointments of Daniel C. Cenzano as the Head of Global Business Communications and Stephanie Weiler as the Head of Global Brand & Operations for Munich Re. Cenzano, based in Princeton, New Jersey, and Weiler, based in Minneapolis, Minnesota, will report to Andreas Lampersbach, Head of Group Communications, based in Munich, Germany.

“We are excited to have Daniel join us and for Stephanie to begin her new leadership role,” said Lampersbach. “Daniel brings a wealth of marketing and communications experience, while Stephanie’s previous strategic responsibilities will be an asset to her in this new global role. With their industry expertise and track record of bringing people together to help the company meet its global goals, we look forward to a strong contribution from both of these leaders.”

Prior to joining Munich Re in January 2020, Cenzano spent 13 years at a global insurance company where he served most recently as the Chief Marketing Officer for the company’s North American Commercial Businesses. He also held a variety of roles in Underwriting, Finance and Marketing at the same organization. During his tenure, Cenzano pioneered innovative digital campaigns that contributed to revenue generation, while also strengthening customer relationships and bolstering the company’s thought leadership presence. He has a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics and Political Science from Rutgers University and a Master’s degree in Business and Project Management from Boston University.

Weiler joined Munich Re in 2006 and most recently served as Senior Vice President, Head of Health and Reinsurance Runoff. She has held additional leadership responsibilities in Munich Re’s Health Division as Senior Vice President and Head of Marketing & Communications from 2014 to 2017 and Senior Management Consultant from 2010 to 2014. She also held positions as Post Merger Integration Program Manager and Program Manager for the Munich Re Health and Life division. Prior to joining Munich Re Weiler served in several roles for two global business consultancies in Germany. She has a Master’s degree in Electrical Engineering and Information Technology from the Technical University of Munich in Germany.

“The addition of Daniel and Stephanie to our global communications team will help generate long-term growth and success for Munich Re. We have ambitious goals and with the leadership we have in place, we can continue to build on the previous decade’s success,” said Lampersbach.

About Munich Re

Munich Reinsurance America, Inc. (“Munich Re”) is one of the largest reinsurers in the United States. We provide reinsurance coverages, specialty reinsurance, and risk management solutions to commercial and personal lines insurance carriers, agents and brokers, program administrators, and managing general agents. Our admitted and non-admitted insurance company affiliates offer specialty insurance products. We provide insurance carriers with white label products to help protect against the devastating effects of natural catastrophes and emerging risks, while our Innovation Lab offers client solutions in a rapidly evolving technology risk landscape. We believe that by looking out for our clients' best interests with innovative risk solutions we can help build more resilient communities and close insurance gaps.

Munich Re, a subsidiary of Münchener Rückversicherungs-Gesellschaft Aktiengesellschaft in München, earns high ratings for financial strength from A.M. Best Company. We serve our clients from our Princeton, New Jersey campus and regional offices throughout the United States. For additional information visit www.munichreamerica.com.