What you will be doing

Actuaries are problem solvers and strategic thinkers. They use their mathematical skills to measure the probability of a particular event occurring in the future and find solutions accordingly. From financial reporting to pricing risk, predictive analysis to digital innovation, actuaries have a say.

Our Actuarial Graduate Trainee Programme is a fast-paced and exciting journey into one of the most varied and fascinating sectors out there – the world of reinsurance. As a trainee, you will experience the breadth and depth of a business that enables companies and individuals all over the world to pursue bold goals with confidence.

You will join one of our actuarial teams, either in the life insurance (Munich Re UK Life Branch) or the general insurance space (Munich Re Great Lakes London Branch or Munich Re Specialty Group). Your role will give you the opportunity to grow your technical skills and actively contribute to the team's performance.

Application process

We are committed to providing a supportive and inclusive candidate experience. All candidates in consideration for any role can request a reasonable adjustment at any point in our recruitment process. You can request an adjustment by speaking to your Talent Acquisition contact.

Diversity, equity and inclusion

At Munich Re, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion foster innovation and resilience and enable us to act braver and better. Embracing the power of DEI is at the core of who we are. We recognise diversity can be multi-dimensional, intersectional, and complex, so we want to build a diverse workforce that includes a wide range of racial, ethnic, sexual, and gender identities; economic and geographic backgrounds; physical abilities; ages; life, school, and career experiences; and political, religious, and personal beliefs. Additionally, we are committed to building an equitable and inclusive work environment where this diversity is celebrated, valued, and has equitable opportunities to succeed.

If you are excited about this role but your experience does not align perfectly with everything outlined, or you don't meet every requirement, we encourage you to apply anyway. You might just be the candidate we are looking for!

All candidates in consideration for any role can request a reasonable adjustment at any point in our recruitment process. You can request an adjustment by speaking to your Talent Acquisition contact.

At Munich Re, brilliant career experiences begin with a simple conversation.
